present:

How Can You Use We the People in an AP Government Class?

Workshop

Thursday, December 8, 2022
At Auburn High School in Auburn, MA
From: 8:00 am to 3:00 pm

A workshop for Advanced Placement Government Teachers.

This Full Day Workshop will examine how the We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution textbook is an effective tool within the curriculum of the AP Government Class.

An experienced We The People and AP Government teacher will explain how his curriculum manages to allow students to produce the results that are expected of an AP level course.

- We the People meets/exceeds the AP Gov Political Project Guideline
- We the People assists students with preparing for FRQs through the inquiry based curriculum
- We the People makes students better writers
- We the People fosters cooperative learning on problem solving and skills based assessments

“We the People applied the AP curriculum in a formal, real-world setting, helped facilitate more meaningful learning and helped me grasp the material in a way that increased my confidence in the exam setting.” – Sydney Lyons, Auburn HS Class of 2022

“We The People through the clarity of its writing is instrumental in creating a solid foundation for understanding.” – Kristine Forsgard, Former AP Gov Teacher

Cost: $100 (includes textbook, lunch, presenter, and PDPs)
