

Massachusetts Center for Civic Education and Revolutionary Spaces present:

How Can We Preserve Our Democracy?

Workshop

Monday, June 12, 2023
At The Old South Meeting
House in Boston, MA
From 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

A workshop for Teachers of All Grades.

Topics pertinent to Civics and Government, including use of the We the People Textbook for Grades 5, 8, and High School.

Come to this Full Day Workshop utilizing the We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution textbook to examine the different elements of democracy.

-Look at the historical view of democracy at the time of our Founders, especially through the lens of the setting of the location, the Old South Meetinghouse.

-Examine the case studies of Israel, Ukraine, and Georgia today. What elements of democracy are in their fight for freedom.

-Consider the United States today and whether Americans should have concerns about their government regarding their democratic principles and values.

-Lastly, how can we teach these important democratic principles to our students?

Cost: $100 (includes textbook, lunch, presenter, and PDPs)
